From performance at St. Mary's Assumption Church – the National Seelos Shrine in New Orleans.

The true story of an affable, itinerant priest in the 1800s whose powerful prayers of intercession resulted in the healing of countless people around the country with terminal illnesses, injuries, and troubled souls.

Written & Performed by Casey Groves. Directed by George Drance, SJ. Playwriting Consultants: Byron Miller, CSsR and George Drance, SJ. Sound Design by Todd Voltz. Support & Funding provided by the Seelos Center of New Orleans. The play is nominated for a 2014 Big Easy Award for Best Original Theater Script.

"For a dose of spiritual vitality, open wide and say, Seelos: Doctor of Souls! Father Seelos is animated by Casey Groves in an engaging 90-minute tour de force. Be good to yourself and make an appointment to see the Doctor!"
—Fr. Byron Miller, C.Ss.R., Director, National Shrine of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos, New Orleans

"Great production, writing and acting. I was really moved and felt like Fr. Seelos was a guy from our decade, someone I could walk up to and engage in conversation, someone I would like to know."
—Sr. Frances Duos, C.S.J., New Orleans
